

Are You Pro or Anti NATO?

Our purpose is not to 'defend' or 'attack' NATO - it's to deepen understanding and generate fresh, creative perspectives. NATO Watch seeks to be both engaged with, and properly critical towards NATO and the security concerns it tackles. At a time when issues around security and defence are attracting widespread attention, for both good and bad reasons, it is vital that people inside and outside of the 'defence establishment' are able to create a serious discussion about what is going on.
